

BRITISH LOSE ANOTHER LIGHT CRUISER

LONDON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—Official—The British cruiser Hermes, one of the light cruisers of the Fleet, was sunk in the Strait of Dover yesterday afternoon by a German submarine. The vessel went down quickly after the torpedo exploded against her side. Nearly all her officers and men were saved.

The Hermes carried four hundred and thirty men and officers. She was of 5600 tons and carried eleven six-inch guns in her main battery. She was commissioned in 1898.

BERLIN CROWDS CHEER SULTAN ON NEWS OF WAR DECLARATION

BERLIN, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—An official announcement was made here last night that Germany had formally annexed Egypt. Enthusiastic crowds greeted Turkey's declaration of war against Russia and paraders before the Turkish embassy last night cheered for the Sultan.

LONDON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—War has been officially declared between Turkey and Russia, according to belated despatches dated Friday, received from Constantinople.

Relations between Turkey and Great Britain and France have been severed and the British and French ambassadors are preparing to leave Constantinople, having notified the Porte that war upon Russia means war as well against the countries they represent.

TURKS SEVERED COMMUNICATIONS

An official statement made here last night says that the Porte summarily closed communications with the British embassy at Constantinople on Friday. The statement says that Great Britain must take its own initiative for the protection of her interests in the territory threatened with attack. An invasion of Egypt by the Turks is threatened. Great Britain is considering what action to take to preclude further aggression.

The foreign office last night issued a long statement covering the situation in the Near East.

RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR HAS LEFT

A despatch from Athens to the Exchange Telegraph says that the Russian ambassador and his staff have left Constantinople. It is believed, says the correspondent, that the peace of the Balkans depends upon the attitude which Bulgaria is to take. Greece is watching the situation closely.

FIGHTING IN THE BLACK SEA

AMSTERDAM, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—An official statement wired here from Constantinople last night to the Zeitung says that a small portion of the Turkish navy operated in the Black Sea on Thursday. It sunk the Russian mine planter Prut, damaged a torpedoer and seized a collier, while a Turkish cruiser bombarded Sebastopol.

ONE GUNBOAT WHIPS TWO

LONDON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—A Reuter's despatch from Petrograd says that the Russian gunboat Kuabane drove two Turkish gunboats from the harbor of Odessa, after the Turks had opened fire upon the port, damaging a number of steamers and the warehouses surrounding the harbor and sinking the steamers Yalta and Kasbeck. The Turks fought with the Kuabane, but were driven out. The Russian gunboat suffered some damage in the engagement.

CONSTANTINOPLE CONSTERNATED

The London Post's Petrograd correspondent says that consternation prevails at Constantinople because of Turkey's becoming involved in the war. The ministry is sitting continuously.

The secretary of the Turkish legation at Petrograd says that he has hopes the misunderstanding will soon be cleared up. The Porte may disavow responsibility for the action of the navy, but the grand vizier's refusal to see the Russian ambassador, pleading illness when the latter requested his passports, seems to commit Turkey beyond recall.

Preparations made by other ambassadors to leave show that their opinion is identical.

Russian newspapers say that the Turco-German cruiser Goben trained her guns upon the sultan's palace before he was willing to permit hostilities, the sultan yielding to this show of force. WASHINGTON, October 31.—U. S. Ambassador Morgenthau has cabled that the Turkish minister of finance has informed the French ambassador that the raid made by the Turkish warships upon Russian vessels and Black Sea ports was without the knowledge of the government and was instigated by German officers.

This notification was given the French ambassador at Constantinople yesterday.

The representatives of the Allies are preparing to leave. The United States has been asked to assume guardianship of the affairs of the various embassies, as has been done in other European countries involved in the war.

German Cruiser In Pacific Reported Caught

SYDNEY, N. S. W., October 31.—(Associated Press by Commercial Cable)—It is reported here that the German cruiser Scharnhorst and Goeben have been captured but the government states that it is not in a position to confirm the rumor.

Back To Paris

PARIS, October 31.—It is unofficially announced that the French government, which was moved to Bordeaux upon the approach of the German army to Paris, will return to Paris on November 29. Parliament will meet December 15.

KING ALBERT APPEALS TO AMERICAN PEOPLE

LONDON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—King Albert of Belgium yesterday addressed a personal appeal to the people of the United States, asking that they come to the assistance of the stricken non-combatants of Belgium, who are homeless, without clothes and starving by the hundreds of thousands.

King Albert addressed his appeal to America through the American commission here. His letter to the commission was written by the king at a time when he was under fire, with his troops in battle before Dunkirk.

Queen Mary Thanks Women of America

WASHINGTON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—A message received here yesterday from Queen Mary of England expresses gratitude to the women of America for their action in outfitting and despatching the Red Cross contingent which has gone to England for service with the British army.

Main Battling Along Allies' Line Is Without Cessation--Both Claim Gains

BERLIN, NOVEMBER 1.—THE OFFICIAL CASUALTY LIST POSTED LAST NIGHT SHOWS THAT THE LOSSES TO THE GERMAN ARMY DURING THE WEEK HAVE TOTALLED SIXTY-TWO THOUSAND. THIS MAKES THE TOTAL CASUALTIES OF THE WAR TO DATE, ON THE SIDE OF THE GERMANS, FOUR HUNDRED AND TWENTY THOUSAND.

LONDON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—The great battle for the possession of the Yser River continues fiercely, with the Belgian, French and British troops gaining substantial advantages in the fighting, in the face of furious attacks upon their lines by the Germans. The flooded fields are hampering the Germans greatly and they are unable to bring any of their main field artillery into action.

Yesterday the British aviators attacked the German depot at Liottervelde, south of Thourout, where great quantities of supplies have been stacked. The bombs of the British airmen inflicted great damage, setting fire to stores and exploding some of the shells.

GERMANS PREPARE LINE IN REAR

The Germans are bringing up reinforcements, but these are not being taken to the battle line, being employed in strengthening the line the Germans are preparing between Ostend and Knocke. This line is being fortified and guns are being mounted in position, particularly between Blankenberghe and Heyst.

BELGIAN OFFICIAL REPORT

HAVRE, France, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—An official statement from the Belgian war minister last night says that the Germans forced the fighting against the Belgian lines in the neighborhood of Remscapelle and Pervuse, advancing in three columns. Two columns were driven back with heavy losses, but the third forced the Belgian line and gained some ground. In a counter attack the Belgians regained a portion of their lost territory.

In the east, at Bixchoote, the Germans were defeated with much loss.

BERLIN OFFICIAL ACCOUNT

BERLIN, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—"Our army yesterday captured and occupied Remscapelle in Belgium, two and a half miles east of Nieupoort, while our attacks upon Ypres continue," says an official statement last night.

"In France we have gained ground east of Soisson, where the enemy has been chased from its fortified positions north of Vailly, the enemy retreating across the Aisne. We have captured thousands of prisoners and two machine guns.

"West of Verdun and north of Toul the French attacks have been repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy."

WHAT PARIS SAYS

PARIS, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—An official statement issued by the war office last night says that the French have made progress in the center, north of Souain, everywhere else holding their positions against the attacks of the invaders.

An early official statement said: "Yesterday the Germans attempted a general offensive movement along the entire front from Nieupoort to Arras. They also delivered violent attacks elsewhere.

"Around La Bassee there have been alternate advances and retirements. South of Nieupoort the Germans have been driven from Rampikapelle. South of Ypres the Allies have lost Hollebeck and Landwerde.

"East of Ypres the Allies have progressed toward Paschendale."

INDICATES GERMAN RETREAT

LONDON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—A late Reuter's despatch from Flushing says that there are indications that the Germans are falling back from Dixemude. Heavy firing is being heard this morning (Sunday) in the direction of Thourout, which is taken to mean that the Allies have forced the fighting and driven the battleline several miles north.

Aeroplane To Help a Wreck

WHITBY, England, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—Fifty more persons were rescued yesterday from the wrecked British hospital ship Kohila which was driven on the rocks in a gale on the preceding day.

It is believed there are fifty more persons still alive on board the Kohila. The seas are still running very high and the work of rescue is difficult and attended with great peril.

An aeroplane is on the way from Hull to attempt to get a line aboard the Kohila.

Copper a Contraband Now

WASHINGTON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—Copper shipments will hereafter be considered absolute contraband by the British, according to a revised contraband list yesterday cabled to the state department from London. Illuminating oil has been placed upon the list of conditional contraband.

Marquis Landsdowne Loses a Son

LONDON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—The name of a son of another distinguished British house was published in the list of casualties yesterday, that of Lord Mairne, second son of the Marquis of Landsdowne, former British Foreign Secretary, and a brother of the Earl of Kerry, who was killed in battle in France.

The latest casualty list, as of October 29, contained the names of twenty officers killed, thirty-two wounded and eight missing.

Italian Cabinet Goes To Pieces

ROME, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—Following the resignation yesterday afternoon of Minister of the Treasury Rubini, as a result of a disagreement with Premier Salandra regarding the developments of the war and the part Italy should play in the future, the entire cabinet resigned last night general disagreement being shown. It is understood that King Victor will entrust Premier Salandra with the task of forming another cabinet. Italy has occupied the island of Sazan commanding the harbor of Avlonia, Albania. Its ownership has long been disputed between Greece and Albania.

CZAR'S FORCES DRIVE GERMANS BACK GIVING NO BREATHING SPACE

LONDON, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—A despatch to the Observer from Petrograd says that it is reported there that Germany has approached Russia regarding terms of peace.

PETROGRAD, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—An official statement last night tells of continued success for the Russians against the Austro-German forces which had attempted the capture of Warsaw and which are now being driven back upon the Silesian border and given no opportunity to reform for another stand. The Russians are capturing hundreds of prisoners daily and taking many supplies, which the Germans are being forced to abandon.

ASSAULT IN EAST PRUSSIA FAILS

The plans of the Germans in East Prussia to break through the Russian fortified lines in the center at Bakalarzewo have also failed, according to this official announcement, which states that after five days of continuous assault the Prussians have been forced to fall back and discontinue the attack. The German losses have been heavy, as their regiments have been sent against strong positions energetically defended.

In Galicia the fighting continues, the Austrians being massed along the line of the Russians' road to Graecow. The situation last night as the result of yesterday's battling was unchanged.

GERMANS REGROUPING, SAYS BERLIN

BERLIN, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—An official announcement dealing with the situation in the east issued last night says that the battle on the East Prussian frontier is as yet undecided. West of Warsaw, says the announcement, the Russians are slowly following the German troops, which are being regrouped.

AUSTRIAN COUNT OF PRISONERS

In Austria, says an earlier official statement, the Austrians have captured to date a total of 648 Russian officers and 73,169 men.

Strong Russian forces which crossed the river San, south of Nisko were repulsed, while the Austrian forces have captured fortified positions south of Sambor.

WILL DROP OFFENSIVE CAMPAIGN

ZAPATA AND VILLA MUST GO

MEXICO CITY, November 1.—(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)—The Mexican minister of foreign affairs issues a statement that Provisional President Carranza will not resign his position until Villa and Zapata, the two leaders whom he fears most, are eliminated entirely and ordered to leave the country, at least for the present.

The statement says that in the event these conditions are complied with Carranza will also leave the country until a new government can be formed.

Carranza is responsible for the statement that he has 90,000 soldiers ready for eventualities, indicating hostilities in the event of the refusal of Villa and Zapata to agree to these terms.

Paul May, the Belgian minister who was handed his passports because of alleged disrespectful notes addressed to the Mexican government, has been given twenty-four hours to leave the country.
